

Health Care Partnerships Benefit Patients, Communities

Partnerships have helped many financially struggling hospitals in California stay open and expand access to specialties such as cancer treatment, rehab services, and organ transplants.

PERCENTAGE OF U.S. COMMUNITY HOSPITALS IN A SYSTEM, BY STATE

States that have a high degree of integrated hospitals — including California — are no more likely than those with lower degrees of integration to have health insurance premiums above the national average.

Kaiser Family Foundation,
State Health Facts

Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services

California has the 10th lowest per capita hospital spending in the nation when adjusting for cost of living.

